

Columbia University Irving Medical Center
Human Resources Department

L G B T Q+

*Employee Resource Group
Monthly Meeting*

Date: Tuesday, Jan 14th, 2020

Time: 1:30pm – 2:30pm

Place: 617 West 168th Street

Georgian Building, 1st Floor

CUIMC HR Conference Room

Visiting speaker from Harlem Pride will be in attendance

The mission of the LGBTQ+ ERG is to be a strategic partner with CUIMC to promote a culture of diversity and inclusion for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and other gender/sexual minorities in the workplace. The LGBTQ+ ERG will support CUIMC's efforts to diversify staff. The LGBTQ+ ERG will serve as a visible, accessible resource for LGBTQ-identified employees and their allies and will provide LGBTQ-focused networking, educational and social opportunities for the CUIMC community.

For more information regarding this group, contact Stephan Richardson (sr3409) or Tonya Richards at custaffdiversity@cumc.columbia.edu

Employee Resource Groups (ERGs or affinity groups) are voluntary groups of employees who join together in their workplace based on shared characteristics and serve as a resource for members and the organization by fostering a diverse, inclusive workplace aligned with organizational goals.

All ERGs are open to all CU Staff