

Presents:
2020 Post-Election Panel Discussion

*Wednesday, November 18th, 2020
2:00pm – 3:30pm EST*

While each election has been significant, 2020 has been an unprecedented year in many ways thereby making this particular election historic.

This moderated panel discussion will feature three political and election experts who will discuss the impact of the November 3rd election results.

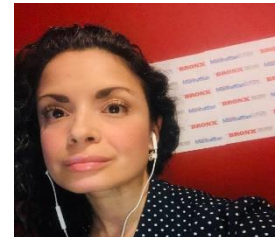

Sarah Steiner

One of the leading election law practitioners in New York State

Bruce Gyory

Political Consultant, Adjunct Professor of Political Science at SUNY Albany & Senior Advisor at Manatt, Phelps & Phillips LLP

Debralee Santos

Distinguished bilingual political journalist, writer, editor for Manhattan Times

Moderated by:

Ross Frommer

Vice President, CUIMC
Government and Community Affairs
and Associate Dean

Wednesday, November 18th, 2020
2:00 - 3:30 p.m. EST

Register via Zoom at:

https://columbiacuimc.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_sQ2RxGUJT7Sp07y-eGxoeQ

Open to all Columbia University Staff, Faculty and Students

This event is hosted by the CUIMC Human Resources Department

For more information visit: CUIMC Staff Diversity Website

Or email custaffdiversity@cumc.columbia.edu